

OUR MANIFESTO

This is a manifesto
that begins but
will never end.

A protest of the notion that there is any
correct way to live.

Pluralism is our reality.

Our differences are
the genius — and the conscience — of our species.

Let's organize our lives
around love and care.

We reject neuronormativity.
We demand the right to live and learn differently.

